

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

DILSON ROBLEDO,
Plaintiff,

v.

C.A. No. 13-604L

DAVID BENEVIDES, Correctional Officer; ROBERT BATISTA,
Correctional Officer;
JAMES WEEDEN, Warden; A. T. WALL,
Director of the Adult Correctional Facilities, in their individual and official capacities,
Defendants.

ORDER

Plaintiff Dilson Robledo is incarcerated at Rhode Island's Adult Correctional Facilities ("ACI"). His Complaint, filed August 23, 2013, alleges that he was assaulted by the Defendant correctional officers, and that his reports of the assault were ignored by the prison's Warden, Defendant Weeden. These Defendants filed a motion for summary judgment. Plaintiff, who is representing himself, filed no response or objection to that Motion.

In reviewing Defendants' Motion, Magistrate Judge Lincoln assumed that all the allegations in Plaintiff's Complaint were true, affording Plaintiff all due leniency in consideration of his pro se status. See Ahmed v. Rosenblatt, 118 F.3d 886, 890 (1st Cir. 1997). Nonetheless, in an Report and Recommendation issued January 22, 2015 (ECF #32), Judge Almond concluded that Plaintiff's Complaint did not support his claims of constitutional or civil rights violations by Defendants.

Although Plaintiff has not objected to the Report and Recommendation, he has belatedly filed an objection to Defendants' motion for summary judgment. The Court has treated this response as a properly-filed objection to the Report and Recommendation pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b)(2). The Court has reviewed Plaintiff's objection, as well as the record and other submissions of the parties. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B), the Court hereby accepts and adopts the Report and Recommendation for the reasons set forth therein. Therefore, all claims against Defendants Benevides, Batista and Weeden are hereby dismissed. Because all claims against the remaining defendant, ACI Director A. T. Wall, have also been dismissed by order of this Court, this matter is terminated in its entirety.

Therefore,
